The final whistle will signal 12 minutes of play the game will then continue until the next score, after which the game will end. If no score is made the game will end at 15 minutes. 6.3. A goal is scored when you throw the disc to a member of your team standing (or more likely running) in the last section at the end of the field known as the “endzone”, your team is attacking. 6.4. The winner is determined by the team scoring the most points. A draw will be awarded if both teams have scored the same number of points at the end of the game. 6.5. League points will be awarded as follows: Win 3, Draw 2, Loss 1 6.6. At the beginning of the game, each team stands in the endzone which they are defending and faces the opposite team. When both teams are ready, the team with the disc throws it as far as they can towards the opposite team who will automatically be in play once they have retrieved it. 6.7. Players cannot run with the disc. When a player catches they have up to 3 steps to slow down and then they must choose a pivot foot and keep this still before throwing the disc. If the player has not thrown the disc and takes additional steps, the player must return their pivot foot back to where it should be, before throwing the disc. If they did make a throw after the 3 steps and the disc was caught by their team, the disc must be returned to the thrower however if the

The defending team takes possession if the disc touches the ground, if it goes out of bounds or if they make an interception by catching the disc or knocking it to the ground in mid-flight. 6.10. Teams change ends between each point. I.e. the scoring team stays in the end zone where they have just scored. 6.11. A team may make unlimited substitutions, but only in the break of play after a goal has been scored and before the game restarts. Teams are allowed an unlimited amount of substitutions in each game. 6.12. The game is noncontact but when contact between players does occur; it may be deemed a foul. 6.13. The game is self regulating and players should admit when they have caused a foul. The level of sportsmanship will be rated by the opposition at the end of each game. 6.13.1. All members of the team must be involved in scoring the opposition's Spirit of the Game 6.13.2. Teams will rate their opposition awarding points under the following headings: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Rules Knowledge and Use</li> <li>• Fouls and Body Contact</li> <li>• Fair-Mindedness</li> <li>• Positive Attitude and Self Control</li> </ul>
